1. This action is in response to the amendment filed on 6/14/04.

- 2. Claims 1, 11, 18 and 28 have been amended.
- 3. Claims 35-36 have been added.
- 4. Claims 1-36 have been rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Abrams, US 6,151,608 and further in view of Baldwin, Jr. et al, US 5,452,449.

As per amended claims 1, 11, 18 and 28, Abrams discloses:

- the trigger file including a schedule for migrating the enhancement (col 13, lines 12-16, col 15, lines 63-66)
- identification of a software system to receive the migration (col 9, lines 9-12)
- the process including looking for the trigger file to determine whether any changes are scheduled (col 8, lines 23-30, col 8, lines 40-44), "identify the record to change or browse" inherently including process for looking for the trigger file as claimed.

For the rest of the limitations see the rejections of claim 1 and 3 in the previous office action.

Art Unit: 2122

For all other claims, see the rejection in the previous office action.

6. Claims 35-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Abrams, US 6,151,608 and further in view of Baldwin, Jr. et al, US 5,452,449 and official notice.

Abrams discloses the trigger files run on a periodic basis (col 13, lines 11-15), user archive the data on a periodic basis (col 19, lines 6-10). Baldwin discloses software updated can be performed periodically (Baldwin, col 9, lines 15-19). Abrams discloses "the process including looking for the trigger file to determine whether any changes are scheduled" (col 8, lines 23-30, col 8, lines 40-44). As per claims 35 and 36, neither Abrams nor Baldwin disclose "looking for a trigger file is performed on a periodic basis". However, official notice is taken for looking for a file on a periodic basis. The modification is obvious because one of the ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to migrate the updated modules efficiently.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed on 6/14/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In the remark, the applicant has argued in substance:

(1) Neither Abrams nor Baldwin discloses "the trigger file including a schedule for migrating the enhancement and identification of a software system to receive the migration, the process including looking for the trigger file to determine whether any changes are scheduled", as recited in the amended claims 1, 11, 18 and 28.

Application/Control Number: 09/749,941 Page 4

Art Unit: 2122

Response:

(1) Abrams discloses the limitation "the trigger file including a schedule for migrating the enhancement and identification of a software system to receive the migration, the process including looking for the trigger file to determine whether any changes are scheduled". See the rejection above.

(2) Neither Abrams nor Baldwin disclose "the process including looking for the trigger file"

Response:

(2) Abrams discloses "the process including looking for the trigger file"

(Abrams, col 8, lines 23-30, col 8, lines 40-44), "identify the record to change or browse" inherently including process for looking for the trigger file as claimed.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any
